“ Linda, Mike and Family:

So deeply saddened to read of dear Aileen's passing. Our friendship goes back many years to the "old days" when the Iglehart backyard connected with the backyard of my dear, deceased aunt and uncle. She was a warm, caring and lovely lady with a beautiful smile. My dear Mother always enjoyed her company and friendship; and I truly enjoyed all conversations we shared. Although we had not seen each other for the last several years, we always shared our greetings to each other via Linda. Thanks, Linda! May the precious love you shared for one another and beautiful memories sustain you at this very difficult time. May our Lord Jesus wrap you in His loving and comforting arms.

My love to each of you,

“ Aileen always had a smile on her face that could make your day when you would enter her apartment. She will be greatly missed. I am thankful I had the opportunity to meet her.
