“ I have probably never had a friend quite like Doug. It's strange, yet often times we seemed in the natural to not have a lot in common, or even to be at opposite poles on many issues.. Nonetheless, there was a deeper "something" that drew us together and maintained our "brotherhood" and strengthened it. Perhaps this stems from the obvious. That Doug was a man to be respected, demonstrating compassion and virtue. To say that he will be missed is an understatement. When Doug parted from us, he took a piece of our hearts with him that may only be reclaimed when we join him in Heaven.

“ Doug was a great friend on Earth...and, he will be an even greater friend in heaven. My family has always loved the Einhorn family. As a matter of fact, Doug and Sharon taught me to love ballroom dancing. God bless you, John Archdeacon.

“ Doug and I have been friends since we grew up together in Brookwood! Of all of Doug's accomplishments during his short life was the fact that he knew Jesus Christ and his personal Savior and Lord! Doug fought a good fight and kept the faith! The last song I sang to Doug during his final moments in Hospice was "What a Day That Will Be When My Jesus I will See!" Our prayers have all be answered, he's finally arrived, the healing that has been delayed has now been realized, no ones in a hurry, there's no schedules to keep, he's just enjoying Jesus, just sitting at His feet! Oh, if we could see Doug now! He's happy, whole and pain free while the ages roll on! I will miss you big time Doug but I will see you again! You are in my future!
