“ To the Foutz Family,
Mr. Foutz came to my mother's, Ruth H. Chrisman Isaacs, funeral in April of 2008. He was so kind and we had heard so much about Mr. Foutz through our mother, as they both went to Seven Mile School and graduated in 1939. He told my sister and I that he tried, if at all possible, to attend each and every one of his classmates' funeral when they passed away. He spoke with us for several minutes about their times in school. We thought that this was such a nice thing for him to do and told him that our mother spoke highly of him and always talked about him being president of their class. What a nice, kind, considerate and thoughtful person he was. I know that his family will miss him and you have my sincere and deepest sympathy on the loss of Mr. Foutz. If possible, I would like to attend his memorial service on Saturday, February 20th. I hope that you post a notice in the newspaper as to the time.

Again, you have my deepest sympathy,

“ Dear Family,
Like so many others who knew your father, Jesse by his wit, courage, and warmth I am deeply grieved by his death.

Jesse and his late wife Dorothy were true and loving friends of mine. May the thoughts and prayers of all who love you help sustain you at this time.

Warmest sympathy,

Beulah Sanford

“ My condolences to the family. Jesse and Dotty were a wonderful couple and I have many happy memories of both of them. Having worked with Dotty many years at Marilyn's and seeing Jesse before and after Dotty's passing, I think fondly of both of them. The best to all of you! Susan Vaughn
