“ Carla, Pam and Kristen: Sorry to learn of your Mother's passing. She always made me feel welcome when I was a guest in your home and she made a dynamite breakfast! Kristen, I am sorry I did not recognize you when we ran into each other at the Coach House recently - it was kind of a goofy evening for all of us. Thinking of all of you.

“ Carla, Pam, Kristen,
I am so sorry to learn of your mother's passing. She was the very best friend to my mother. And, after her death in 1986, your mom meant the world to me. I loved playing bridge with her. She kept me up to date on your lives, too. Heaven gained a sweet, sweet angel. Love, Donna Aufranc
