“ As I prepare today to go to my friends funeral there are so many things going through my mind..In the last decade + I met and became good friends with this man.He was a devoted family man . We spent many Sunday evenings talking about life. He was very proud of and loved his children and their children. He lived watching sports on television especially the women playing tennis. Lol He told me about coon hunting with his brother and once how they were trying to lose the game warden...He loved to socialize with friends at the Hitching Post, Turner Gills, Terry B's and the Golden Key. He was a good man and a great friend to have. He spoke often about the Shriner's children hospital and I seen him tear up several times when they would air the commercials,that was his reason to play the books,so when I would take him I started playing too,of course I never won..lol. I could go on and on about this man but for now I just want to say that I will miss him deeply and it is so hard to say goodbye...God bless his family as they go through this very hard time
