Tribute Wall

“ I only knew her for a little over 2 years, but those were precious years. No matter how she felt she would smile and make you feel welcome. Her intelligence was only surpassed by her empathy, compassion, humor and love. Every visit was a great one, and I will never forget her. She was a true matriarch, mentor, and friend to all at Zion even if they never met her. Her prayers helped sustain us, and her faith and love helped set a high standard at Zion. She will be greatly missed, and yet we will treasure communing with her every time we commune! Farewell beloved sister in Christ!
