“ Though I only had the pleasure of meeting Allan twice in person during his visits to Southern California, my long friendship with his son Randy gave me the chance to know Allan through Randy telling me of the family times when he was growing up. When Allan visited Randy's SoCal home and I could come over, Allan made feel like an honorary family member by his warm manner and joyful friendliness in those brief times.

I can see the great legacy of Allan's caring for others alive and well in his outstanding children, Randy, Gary, Sherry and Charlene, all of whom I know, and see carrying on the values that their dad Allan instilled in them.

In your loss, I wish blessings and peace to the whole Miller family and Allan's many, many friends.
