“ Dear Sweet Austin,
There are a few things I want to say to you. I always enjoyed the times you stayed with us.. It was like having another grandkid in the house. You were like the brother Tyler never had and a great addition to our household. I remember the long talks we had. Then when we all stayed at my brother's house when I was caring for him and you guys had what seemed like your own little apartment in the basement that you both appreciated so much. I especially enjoyed your appetite you guys always had for my hamburger hash. It was such a pleasure to see how you boys, including Greg, enjoyed a simple meal so much. Greg really liked you and you was always ready to lend a hand and with that great smile 😊. I was so amused with your obsession to find a new look in a hair style and color. You had me help you with a hair cut and color once but I told you .. you have a good look already but it was fun going over some different techniques and your obsession to follow through. I really miss knowing you are no longer with us and I will always cherish our last conversation and your letter to Tyled and then your thoughtful message on Sunday afternoon for prayers for my Austin's Grandpa when you were having a rough day yourself and never mentioned it. I wish you would have reach out to me or any of us that love and care so much about you. You were more than a friend to me and Tyler ... for Tyler, you were his Brother at Heart. Like my Daughter, Angie and Greg ... You will always be in our hearts ... Today .. Tomorrow .. Forever! May you Rest in Peace dear, sweet, always Smiling young man and know your value and the Love 💕 Ty and I and your family and many friends have for you and that you will be dearly missed everyday and never forgotten.
Love,
Belinda
