

Barry Richard Damm

January 31, 2014

Barry Richard Damm passed away on January 31, 2014 in his home in Hilliard, Ohio. Barry was born in Brooklyn, New York, son of the late William and Ann Damm on July 25, 1948. He graduated from Hicksville High School and enlisted in the United States Army on May 21st, 1968. Barry was a Vietnam combat war veteran serving as part of the 101st Airborne Army Intelligence Unit. He then graduated from Miami University with a Bachelor's Degree in Business. He was a long time owner of Bay State Supply Co. He was preceded in death by his parents, William and Ann Damm, and a nephew. Barry is survived by his daughters, Sara (Kevin) Holstein and Sally (Michael) Yancy; brothers, Brian and Bruce (Sue); sister, Barbara; grandsons Adam and Luke Holstein; five nephews and three nieces. The family wishes to thank the Veteran's Hospital for all their care in Barry's later years. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Hamilton Christian Center, 1940 Millville Ave., Hamilton, Ohio 45013 or online at www.hcconline.org. A short visitation will be held at Hamilton Christian Center, in the Fireside Room, from 3:30-4:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 6, 2014. There will be a private service for family and friends immediately following the visitation.