“ From the many photos, it appears you have accumulated a lot of great memories together. Keep those good times fresh in your mind, and your conversations when you all get together.
I've only had the pleasure to meet your son, Bill, who seems to be a good young man. You two did a good job raising him.
May God look over you and your family with a little extra care at this time.

“ Patty I still remember Sunday dinners at your house. You and your mom made the best chicken and dumplings! You were always so kind to me. Rest in peace.

Aunt Pat was always very sweet and quite a talented painter as well. I always enjoyed spending time with her and my Uncle Bill.*

I fondly remember Aunt Pat in her wedding gown. I was only 5 years old when she married my Uncle Bill...the first wedding I remember attending and she looked like a Princess thru my young eyes

“ My fondest memory of my Aunt Pat is of her in her wedding gown when she married my Uncle Bill. To a girl of 5; She looked like a Princess. That image remains in my memory today. With Love, Karen (Pyles) Sziraki
