

Bonnie Miller (nee Hesselbach) McNeil

October 16, 2014

Bonnie Miller (nee Hesselbach) McNeil Born October 6, 1930 to Leonard and Stella Hesselbach, both deceased. She died October 16, 2014 at Berkeley Square, Hamilton. Her beloved husband, David McNeil preceded her in death. She leaves her daughter, Kimberly Rachford (Greg Jones); her son, Scott (Jennifer) Miller, grandchildren, Christina Rachford (Larry Crank), Eric Miller, Olivia Miller and Abigail Miller and great grandchildren, Lacey, Caylee and Jordan Crank. She also leaves many nieces and nephews, who lovingly called her “Aunt Bon”. She was also preceded in death by her brother, Leonard Hesselbach and sisters, Betty Boehme Atkin and Doris Sweet. Bonnie was active in community theater, working with many groups and earning a long list of credits and awards. She and her husband, David shared their fascination with world travel, creating many beautiful and educational presentations. And she truly loved Berkeley Square – its residents, management and staff, always having a smile and a wave for everyone. She was an innovative manager in her career, bringing new ideas and procedures to the workplace. She worked on the hospital administrative staffs of University and Children’s Hospitals for ten years each, Assistant Administrator of Carmel Manor Nursing Home in Ft. Thomas, Kentucky, along with the Federal Elections Bureau (as director for 22 counties in Northern Kentucky) and ended before retirement as owner of her own mailing service. Memorials may be made to the Life Care Fund, Berkeley Square, Hamilton, Ohio. Services will be private with Weigel Funeral Home serving the family.
