“ Dear Mike, Jenny and Phillip I am so sorry I wasn't able to be at Byron's memorial and celebration of his life. I couldn't get off work that day they were short of help. I so wanted to be there to see all of you. Byron as you already know was such a wonderful loving kind sweet person and even though he was a lot older than me I growing up I always enjoyed being around him. I wanted you all to know I would love to keep in touch and am going to see if Jenny is on Facebook to message her. Blessings to you all my dear cousins. Love Beth 😊

“ Condolences to Byron family. He was a very kind man. I met him years ago as a neighbor. Then most recently at St Marks. He always was thinking about others and always asked about my husband when he was ill. The world is sadder with his passing.

“ We first met Byron in 1985 when my husband started his medical practice and he was one of the kindest guys we ever had the pleasure of providing care for. Upon retirement in 2020, he was the only patient that I cried with while I said goodbye! He was a very special guy and will be missed.

“ My condolences to the family and friends of Byron, I know their sadness must be boundless on his passing. May the countless wonderful memories of Byron comfort them in their time of mourning.
Byron was one of those rare souls who offered a kind smile and friendship to everyone. He was a loving son and brother, a faithful husband and a good friend.
Though childless, he loved children and spent countless hours being a great and encouraging uncle to his nephews, my two sons. I am saddened at his passing, but so grateful for having known him.
