“ My Dear Cindy. Carolyn has been on my mind for months now, so I thought I would look up her address and write her and found this.. so sorry for your loss. Your Mom was an awesome lady and my good buddy throughout my high school years. If you remember I was your babysitter! Praying God has been with you in your time of sorrow. Carol Altman Hyde

“ I taught with Carolyn at Hayes Elementary for many years. After she retired, I didn't see her for a long time. However, after I retired four years ago, I joined the ORF's monthly Olive Garden lunches. It was wonderful reconnecting with her! Carolyn was so full of life, and just like I remembered her all those years ago! I will miss her. She is now reunited with many other dear Hayes friends; Bill, Barb, Darlene, Anita, and Gloria. I can just hear all of them them laughing and carrying on!

“ I also taught first grade with Carolyn at Hayes for one year. That was the year Hayes had 3 first grades which was unusual for a school that had 2 classes of each grade. I learned a lot from Carolyn - especially that it is better to ask for forgiveness than permission! Her funny stories were never ending and in most of them she was telling on herself! One day she came flying into the teachers' lounge/workroom almost on a dead run. She was hastily working her way around people and then plopped on the last seat on the couch. By this time we all were staring at her. She said "I had to beat Bill here!" She was referring to Bill Rebman, the P.E. teacher who always had a little catnap sitting on the end of the couch. I am forever grateful that at the end of that year, Carolyn retired, which meant I could stay at Hayes for it was back to two first grades the next year. I moved across the hall and into her classroom for the following years at Hayes. I did my best to fill some mighty big shoes in Room 102. I am sure Carolyn is in heaven cracking everyone up with her stories.

“ I remember the first time I met Aunt Carolyn. It was my first Sloneker picnic and the first time to meet the Sloneker family. Aunt Carolyn was the first one to greet me and she showered me with hugs and kisses, leaving lipstick all over my face. The last time I saw Aunt Carolyn she showered me with hugs and kisses and left my face full of lipstick. The woman was full of love and life. She could command a room yet make everyone in that room feel welcome and part of the group. If we are lucky in life we get to have people like Aunt Carolyn in our life . I am lucky and honored to have shared time with her . I loved her and will miss her and more than ever will miss that lipstick on my face. Dennis Valentini
