“ It was a thanksgiving tradition for our family to come all the way from Ann arbor, Michigan to have thanksgiving lunch with Charles, Marlene and my brother and family. So many good memories enjoying the roasted turkey with delicious stuffing, other awesome food cooked by Marlene and Charles and the wonderful stories. We will always cherish these beautiful memories and thank you Charles for sharing your beautiful smile with us.

“ Charles loved my family and myself unconditionally. He always had a twinkle in his eyes as he told stories of his rustic life and dare devil days. Indeed he was a dare devil as he beat colon cancer and worked in his farm till the very end. His love for his wife Marlene is a testimony to all of us of lasting love . We miss him. We are blessed to have him in our lives .
