“ Charlotte was a beautiful lady with a sense of humor and a kind spirit. Bud and I loved visiting with her when we were in Hamilton and went to visit Joyce. We were ready to celebrate her 100th birthday with her, but God had other plans. I'm so thankful we got to see her a few days before she went to be with Jesus. She will be missed, but I know I will one day see her again. I love you, Charlotte! Diane

Spending time with Charlotte, whether a phone call or in person, would lift up anyone's spirits. Her life experiences and loving memories, of time with her family and friends, a delight to listen to. We will miss her. Rest in Peace, Sweet Charlotte.

Joyce Ann, Rosemary, and Carolyn. Fond memories wash over me today from our childhood. My Sunday school teacher, your sweet Grandmother Bessie McDaniel who lived next door to my Grands. Bill, Sue, and Charlotte, at a time when friends and neighbors loved and cared for each other. My prayers are with you all at this sweet homegoing
