“Cleo was the loveliest person I have ever known. That is not hyperbole. She so warmly welcomed me when I was new to Butler County, and I have so valued her friendship ever since. When I was angry at something someone had done, Cleo always gave them the benefit of the doubt, and when the hurtful actions were to her, she took the high road in responding. Cleo worked tirelessly for the Butler County Democratic Party, making the headquarters not just operable, but comfortable and attractive. She and Bob volunteered for every job no one else wanted and accomplished admirably every effort they undertook. Cleo’s goal with that volunteer work, and I would venture to say with life as a whole, was not to make a name for herself, but to work behind the scenes to make things better; to improve the situation of others. I am sorry that as a young girl, obstacles kept her from pursuing the artistic ability she so obviously had. I feel honored that I was able to glimpse some of that ability. Anyone who was fortunate enough to know Cleo, is aware they received a special and uncommon gift: the love of an extraordinary heart. I send my heartfelt condolences to Bob, Michael, Cindy, Bryan and Cleo’s grandchildren and great-grandchildren. If the hole in my heart is as big as it is, I can only imagine how much it hurts for those who had her in their lives longer and more regularly. This world has lost one of its great citizens. I will so miss you, Cleo.
Lovingly, Gretchen Fisher

“I was active with the Butler County Democratic Party when Cleo and Bob were volunteers. Cleo was always friendly, courteous, kind, and efficient. It was just a pleasure to work alongside her. She will be missed.
