

Cynthia B. Albrecht

February 11, 2013

Cynthia B. Albrecht, Age 77, of Hamilton died Monday, February 11, 2013 at Christ Hospital. She was born in Wrentham, MA on January 25, 1936, daughter of Leon and Lydia Bowden. She received a bachelor's degree from Boston University in nursing and spent her working life dedicated to United States Veteran's at the Cincinnati VA Hospital. She was a dedicated and loving wife to Scott C. Albrecht. She had great passion for traveling to far-off countries and had many adventures in places such as India, Afghanistan, and Australia. Her warm smile and rich laughter could brighten a room and stories of her travels entertained family and friends. Her wise counsel and loving heart will be greatly missed. She was preceded in death by her husband Scott and is survived by her brothers: William and Bradley Bowden, four step-children: Adele (and husband Justin) Morreale, Scott (and Marjorie) Albrecht, Constance "Connie" (and husband Dennis) Kelly, and Kenton "Kent" (and wife Adrienne) Albrecht, ten grandchildren, and 9 great-grandchildren, and her best-friends and confidants: Sande Raabe and Paul Smith. There will be a private memorial service for family and friends on Sunday, February 24th.
