“ I knew David from being Sam Williams’ guardian and had the pleasure of seeing him at the house on St. Clair, at Saturday bowling, and at softball games. David was a wonderful man who always had a big smile and a truly kind disposition. I would always ask David how he was doing and he would always answer “pretty good” even at times when I didn’t think he was feeling that well. Then David would give me a big hug with that megawatt wonderful smile!
My thoughts and prayers are with David and his family. I’m sure he is making heaven even brighter with his wonderful smile.
