

David L. McNeil

August 25, 2006

David L. McNeil, Age 90, a resident of Berkeley Square Retirement Community, Hamilton, beloved husband of Bonnie (nee Hesselbach), devoted father of David McNeil and of Lois Peterson, grandfather of Erik and Kyle Peterson, dear brother of Rosalind Tate. He was preceded in death by his beloved first wife Virginia (nee Lang). He died Friday, August 25, 2006 at Fort Hamilton Hospital's Vitas Hospice Unit, following a heart attack. He was a lifelong educator, primarily at Wyoming High School and a community service volunteer. He enjoyed numerous hobbies and interests, which he shared through lectures, travelogues and self-published books. He was an active member of many clubs and organizations. A celebration of his life will be held at Berkeley Square Retirement Community in Hamilton on Sunday, September 17, 2006 at 7 p.m. Memorials may be directed to The Colonial Foundation for the Employee Activities Fund, 520 Eaton Avenue, Hamilton, Ohio 45013 or Friendship United Methodist Church, 1025 Springfield Pike, Wyoming, Ohio 45215. Weigel Funeral Home is serving the family.