“ One of my best friends. From talking about the Reds or the Bengals, going to games, to going to concerts or bowling with him and Nancy or the boys later, I was lucky to have gotten the time.

I met Denny back in 1981 as my Assistant Supervisor at Ohio Casualty. From then, we became good friends. One fond memory was when he taped a sign on my back as I was going uptown Hamilton to shop. It said, " Honk I'm Stupid".. got lots of honks . Plus, returned to work walked to the cafeteria and was greeted by verbal honks. Great memories.

He was kind and fun, creative, and cared about Nancy, the boys and the grandkids.

He became great at Facebook and enjoyed catching up with past people. He kept me informed on everything and all activity. Even tried to convert me.

The Dukes' shirt he is in came from Pheonix Arizona from a bar we hung out in after visiting the Reds Spring Training and his 90 plus auntie who lived there. I have the same shirt and is just another great memory I will always remember.

I can't say enough about my friend. I loved him and his family and I will miss him deeply.

Goodby my Friend.
