

Donald Burkley

September 21, 2004

Age 77, of Hamilton, died Tuesday, September 21, 2004, at 5:10 a.m. in the Vitas Hospice Unit at Ft. Hamilton Hospital. He was born in Ashland, Kentucky on December 4, 1926, the son of Elmer and Elma (DuVal) Berkley. He was a WWII Veteran of the U. S. Army serving from 1942 to 1946. He served in Germany as a cryptographer. He married Louise E. King on May 31, 1957 in Hamilton. He had been employed as an accountant for Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton and Ransohoff for 15 years. Then he and his wife owned and operated the Cork and Bottle Wine Shop and Drive Thru for 17 years, retiring in 1989. He was a member of Trinity Episcopal Church and the Hamilton Lions Club. He is survived by his wife, Louise; a step son, James R. King and wife Carol of Hickory, North Carolina; a step daughter, Judy A. Jenne and husband, William of Hamilton; two grandchildren, Timothy A. King of Cookeville, Tennessee and Lisa R. King of San Jose, California; two nieces, Elaine Deaton and husband Roy of Monroe and Linda Derivan and husband H. T. of Middletown and many great nieces and great, great nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister Lois Jay and a grandson, Wade Alan King. A memorial service will be held Saturday, October 2, 2004 at 11 a.m. at Trinity Episcopal Church with The Rev. Paul E. Daggett officiating. Friends may greet the family at Trinity Church from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. preceding the memorial service. Memorials may be directed to Trinity Episcopal Church, 115 N. Sixth Street, Hamilton, Ohio 45011.