

Doris Jean (Kolibob) Schroeder

February 24, 2012

Doris Jean (Kolibob) Schroeder age 77, passed away peacefully in her sleep early Friday, February 24, 2012. She was born June 28, 1934 to John and Stella (Booker) Kolibob in Hamilton, Ohio. She was a 1952 graduate of Hamilton High School. She worked at Robinson-Schwenn then Bendix Aviation before marrying the love of her life, Thomas (Tom) Schroeder on November 5, 1955. They were happily married for 56 years and their love for each other was an inspiration to everyone who knew them. Doris loved working in her flower gardens, traveling to Florida with Tom each winter, and spending time with her children and grandchildren. She was the most loving wife and best mother as well as the kindest person. Our lives are richer because of her; she was full of goodness with a happy heart, and was a blessing to everyone that had the good fortune to meet her. She is survived by her husband, Tom, of Somerville, son Charles (Barbara) of Somerville, daughter Dee of Hamilton, son Tom Jr (Di) of Seven Mile, and son John (Camilla) of Louisville, Ky.; nine grandchildren: Michael (Codi), Steven, Matt (Caitlyn), Stephanie (Alex), Tommy (Kelly), Katie, Chelsea, Anna, and Jeff, and three great-grandchildren: Colton, Thomas, and Claire. She is also survived by her half-sister Barbara, sisters-in-law MaryAnn and Marilyn. She was preceded in death by her parents, stepfather Sam, stepmother Iona, sister Margie, and half-brother Ron. Visitation will be held 6-8pm, Monday, February 27 at Weigel Funeral Home 980 NW Washington Blvd, Hamilton. A short service at the funeral home will be held on Tuesday, February 28 at 10am followed by burial at Collinsville Cemetery.
