“ Dottie and my mother, Martha, were friends at Otterbein in Middletown. Dottie was always so caring to my mother. She would wheel herself into my mother's room and sit with her and watch game shows. My mother is blind, so company such as Dottie's really helped cheer her up. Dottie would always play the piano for everyone in her building. My mother always loved to hear hymns, such as How Great Thou Art. Dottie always played that for her to cheer her up. I will miss seeing her during my visits with my mom. Dottie is in heaven with her husband. I know she missed him so very much.

“ I have lots of fond memories of Dottie and Earl. She was my teacher in Sabbath School and taught me to play the piano. My family and I always had a good time visiting with them on the weekends during my childhood. Dottie will be greatly missed.
