“ It was the late 1940's. My family lived in Lindenwald, in the downstairs of a house, on Pleasant Avenue. The upstairs was occupied by another family, the Wimberly's. I remember Doug and his sister, Darlene. They were nice kids and we were playmates. My family included parents Delbert and Mary Shelton, my brother Jimmy and myself, Sharon. My sweetest childhood memories were of that house and our neighbors.
Deepest condolences to you, Darlene, and to all of Doug's family.
