

Edna Mae Hendel

March 7, 2013

Age 87, of Wayne Township went home to be with the Lord, Thursday, March 7, 2013 at her residence. She was born in Corbin, Kentucky on October 31, 1925 the daughter of Calvin and Catherine (Gross) Saylor. She married Edwin M.T. Hendel on May 26, 1946 in Hamilton. She was a homemaker and a devoted farm wife. Edna was a member of Princeton Pike Church of God, the Ladies Willing Workers and former nursery director for many years. She was a former Cub Scout Troop Den Mother and a precious wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, neighbor and friend to all who knew her. Edna is survived by her husband, Edwin; children, Ron (Debbie) Hendel, Paul (June) Hendel all of Hamilton, Mike (Ingrid) Hendel and Kathryn (Jon) Truster all of Middletown; thirteen grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and one on the way. She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, Arthur Saylor and four sisters, Mossie Snyder, Phoebe Harris, Martha Butner and Chloa Tuley. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, March 12, 2013 at 10 a.m. at Weigel Funeral Home, 980 N. W. Washington Blvd. with Pastor Jake Jacobs officiating. Burial will be in Rose Hill Burial Park. Visitation will be Monday evening March 11 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the funeral home.