

Jacqueline J. Paragin

August 2, 1926 - March 12, 2021

Jacqueline Jane Paragin age 94, of Hamilton, passed away on Friday, March 12, 2021 at Bradford Place. She was born on August 2, 1926 in Latonia, Kentucky the daughter of George and Elsie (Nant) Huber. She and her family then moved to Silver Grove. “Jackie” was raised in a musical family. She mastered playing the piano and organ, entertaining family and friends at various events and was an avid member of the Cincinnati Organ Club. She played saxophone in a band with her sisters, Lorene and Georgiana, in the 1940’s at Cincinnati area clubs and music venues including the Brown Derby Café on 5th Street. The Brown Derby was where she met James H. Paragin before he departed for the Normandy invasion. They stayed in touch throughout his service. Following the war she married “Harold” on August 28, 1948 and moved to Hamilton, Ohio. She enjoyed boating with the family and traveling the country in the family’s RV, especially with her grandchildren. Jackie also loved sewing, crocheting, knitting and would often share the results of her craft with family and friends. She is survived by her son, James W. Paragin and two grandchildren, Casey R. Paragin and Lindsay Ann Paragin. Private graveside services will be held Friday, March 19, 2021 at Rose Hill Burial Park. “ Jackie was my "other mother". I've known her all my life! She taught me how to play the organ at a young age. She helped me to talk my daddy into building an organ, and i promised I take lessons! She taught me for 4 yrs. She also encouraged me to sew and crochet. I was left handed but she taught me to crochet right handed. Harold was my dad's best friends from child hood. Jackie and Harold, my mom and dad, Charles and Irene Rymer were best friends. My dad and Jackie were friends until he passed. Jackie I'm going to miss you terribly. I'm so sorry I didn't get to say good bye! But someday I will say hello again. I love you to the moon and back! May you RIP.
Love Linda Rymer-Brunner
