

James R. Clark

October 31, 2014

James R. Clark age 76, of Hamilton died Friday, October 31, 2014 in Hospice of Hamilton. He was born July 1, 1938 in Cincinnati, the son of Robert L. and Marie (Bayes) Clark. He married Marjorie W. Duvall on June 7, 1958 in Hamilton. He was a 1956 graduate of Hamilton High School and 1960 graduate of Miami University with a B. S. in Education. He began his career as a social studies teacher, then became an underwriter at Ohio Casualty and retired from the Butler County Engineer's Office as a bookkeeper. He was a member of Westwood Presbyterian Church. Jim loved to read, especially political biographies and westerns. Jim was a thoughtful, compassionate gentleman who always tried to lift others by offering a word of encouragement or an amusing story. After retirement, Jim loved to travel with Margie and their dog, Misty, in their red VW Eurovan. His family and friends will miss him very much. He is survived by his wife, Marjorie; two daughters, Lori Rochelle Clark, Hamilton and Deborah Suzanne (Dennis) Cahalane, Finneytown; three grandchildren, Christina M. Cahalane, Kimberly A. Cahalane and Paige J. Cahalane and his special dog, Mr. Bean. Visitation will begin at 9:30 a.m., Monday, November 3, 2014, followed by a small service for family and close friends at 10:30 a.m., at Weigel Funeral Home, 980 N. W. Washington Blvd. with Rev. Norman Godfrey officiating. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery. Memorials may be directed to Westwood Presbyterian Church, 1068 Stahlheber Road, Hamilton, Ohio 45013 or a favorite charity.
