“ To Tim and Dan and their families,
Freida and I are so sadden by loss of Goosh..Jim was a great guy so full of fun and really enjoyed life to the fullest.
He loved his family and all his friends and was crazy about sports especially when his family was playing..
GOD bless you Tim and Dan... I know there is a big vacancy in your lives and the memories that you share. But I believe GOD and time will help you through it.

“ To the James Ruecking Family you all have my sympathy and am very sorry for your loss.
To Goosh. I have fond memories of us playing baseball together in the 'good ole days'. We had some crazy fun days. We were so young. I remember crossing paths with you over the years. We talked and laughed. I kept up on your progress talking with your son at Potters. So sorry your time has come. Rest in peace Old friend.
