

Jane (Rose) Goebel

August 17, 2007

Jane (Rose) Goebel, 73, of Hamilton died peacefully at her home Friday, August 17, 2007. Born to Earl C. and Leah Mae (Jones) Rose in Panola, Kentucky, she lived most of her life in Hamilton, retiring from Champion in 1995. She was actively involved with the Girls Social Council, the HHS Class of '52 reunions, the "4-F Club" and the F.O.P. Lodge. Mrs. Goebel was dedicated to various causes, none more important than her family. She enjoyed doing things for and spending time with them and was grateful to meet her great-grandson (born August 3rd). Survivors include: her husband of 47 years, Jack Goebel; two sons, Steven Goebel and wife, Melanie of Springboro, Ohio and Scott Goebel and wife, Emily of Fort Thomas Kentucky; grandchildren include, Katherine Goebel, Julie and Brion Treadway of Hamilton, Nick, Jacqueline and Aaron Goebel of Springboro, Ella Goebel of Fort Thomas and a great grandson, Brooks Jackson Treadway. She is also survived by one aunt, Rena Belle Rose of Brassfield, Kentucky; brothers and sisters-in-law, Don and Lois Ramsey of Myrtle Beach, Audrey and Ellis South of Fort Myers; many nieces and nephews and three very dear and lifelong friends, Jean Proctor, Carmoletta Brandenburg and Carol Eaton. Mrs. Goebel was preceded in death by her parents, a sister, Ann Adkins and by her son, Hamilton Police Officer Maury Goebel, after whose death she made sure his daughters graduated from college. Visitation will be Saturday, August 25, 2007 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at Weigel Funeral Home, 980 N. W. Washington Blvd. followed by a Memorial Celebration at 11 a.m. with Rev. Jim Cecere officiating. Burial will be in Rose Hill Burial Park. In lieu of flowers Mrs. Goebel requested that donations be made to The Goebel Scholarship Fund in care of the Hamilton Community Foundation, 319 North 3rd Street, Hamilton, Ohio 45011.
