

Janet R. Senol

August 6, 2007

Janet R. SENOL, Age 75, Hamilton, passed away Monday, August 6, 2007 at 9:30 a.m. at Fort Hamilton Hospital. She was born in Hamilton on November 26, 1931 the daughter of Walter Byron and Olive Burdsall Young. She was a graduate of Hamilton High School and Purdue University, receiving a degree in dietetics. In 1957 she married Ahmet Senol in Istanbul, Turkey. She was employed as a dietician at Christ Hospital, Mercy Hospital, Hughes Hospital and Fort Hamilton Hospital. She retired in 1990 as Assistant to the Director of Food Services at Fort Hamilton. She was a very active member in the Park Ave. United Methodist Church, an avid reader, and active in bridge clubs. She is survived by her husband, Ahmet; three daughters, Meli (Donald) Dwiggin of Apex, N.C., Leyla (Ed) Fruth of Greer, S.C., and Ayla (George) Wolfe of Columbus; one sister, Marjorie Heideman of Cincinnati; and six grandchildren. Funeral services will be Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at the Weigel Funeral Home, 980 N.W. Washington Blvd. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery, Gratis. Friends may call from 12:30 until 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home. Memorials may be given to the Park Ave. United Methodist Church, Park and Dick Aves., Hamilton.