“ Jeanette was one of my mother's best friends. She was at our house often, I have so many fond memories of her from the very beginning of my childhood and on. Jeanette and my mom would spend endless hours together, whether playing cards, walking together, sharing funny stories or just have a laughing fest! Jeanette had this contagious laugh that would bring us all to tears of joy. She was always so kind and so loving to our family. I liked to call her my "second" mom, she seemed to enjoy that title. My condolences to Steve and Barbara, wish I could have been there to personally hug you both. I know my mom is there to welcome her to Heaven.
Love, Lisa McLaughlin
