“ Met Joan through my MIL Jean Boring, who were bridge players and lived in Montgomery. Bud & Bob Boring worked at GE. When Jean moved to Buffalo with us after Dad passed I cleared their home and Joan invited me to stay with her. We became great friends and would share Crown Royal after dinner. She shared her Cornell experiences and memories of Bud often. She always had lots of love and family happiness. The last memory I have of Joan was visiting her in the nursing home. That beautiful smile was radiant after we found her. I'll always remember Joan.

“ Oh my dear sweet Joanie--you will be sorely missed. What an extraordinary person you are--truly one of a kind. I was lucky enuff to meet Joan when my late husband, Gary and I moved to Naperville, IL. She, Bud and the kids lived across the street from us and the good times never stopped. Dinners and parties and boy could she cook!! I treasure some of her fab recipes she shared with me and use them to this day! We moved out of IL back in '71, but never lost touch with my dear friend. We'd talk, giggle and sometimes cry on the phone with each other -- that was Joan -- thru good and not so good, she was there, helping and caring. God, I love that girl! But now, Joan and Bud are back together, along with her beloved Mom and Dad and Aunt. I am truly happy for you Joanie---you'd had enuff of this place---on to the best!!! Much love to you 3 kids--- Kathy, Kris and Steve -- you are very lucky-- you have an amazing Mom!

Thank you Myra, your words mean so much especially at this really hard time. She loved you so much and you were a great friend to her. She would always get a big smile when I asked her if she wanted me to call you. You had a best friend for life. Much love.....Kris

“ I believe it was in the 1960's that Marilyn and I met Joan and Bud as we were all new resident's of Brownsboro Farm in Louisville, KY. We hit it off immediately and the friendship continued through Joan and Bud moving to Naperville IL. and later to Cincinnati, OH. Marilyn left us first and Merrily joined the friendship. We subsequently lost Bud and now Joan. Merrily and I will continue to value the friendship in our memories until we too pass into the next destination. There are so many memories of travel together, cocktails together, swapping experiences together, and reporting on family activities too numerous to explain, you just should have been there. Our love goes out to Kathy, Steve and Kris and to all the grands and great grands. We are sorry that my lousy mobility and Merrily's travel schedule will make it impossible to attend the May third proceedings.
