“ i remember Jourdan mostly as a young girl and teenager as she was at our house frequently visiting my daughters Brittany and Bethany. She was so filled with fun and laughter and the girls always found something to get into...swimming, sled riding, camping and countless other things. I'll never forget when they decided to follow a creek near our house for miles-just to see where all it went. I believe her contagious laugh will stay with us and when we look at her beautiful little girls it will remind us of some onery thing that Jourdan did and make us smile

“ My relationship with Jourdan involved a lot of talk of motherhood. One thing I know is that she loved to be a mom and she loved those little girls with her whole heart. You can see in so many pictures, the pure love she had for her babies just radiating off of her face. She wanted to raise those sweet girls to be strong, kind, brave, and fierce. And they will be, because their mother was, and she lives on through them.

We are so sorry for your loss.

“ We all have heavy hearts this morning and are sending love to the entire family. Jourdan was always so warm and I know she loved her girls more than life itself. Her spirit will live on through them. ❤️
