“ My sister, my best friend, where do I begin. She was a hard act to follow, yet she always had time to encourage and support me. I have always loved and admired her for her strength, her intelligence, and her adventuresome spirit. Plus, she was so darn much fun. We could laugh till our stomachs hurt. We had the best childhood ever and were blessed with the best parents ever. We were fortunate to be able to carry on into adulthood and spend time together in the summers at our cabin at our favorite place in Michigan known as "God's Country". It's really hard to lose the one person on this earth that has the same memories as yourself from the time you were born. I will surely miss our daily phone calls, our shopping trips, which would usually end up at the "Grand Finale", and our spring break trips. The memories are endless and priceless. Like Judy's daughter Kris said, "she was easy to love". She will forever be in my heart.
Love, Your Sister

“ I met Judy about the same time I met Linda, when we were kids on vacation in Michigan. As Linda's big sister she was a bit intimidating at first, but after I lucked out and beat her at Scrabble, we became friends. She was an excellent tennis player and her crossword exploits are the stuff of legends. Over the years when I'd call Dave on the phone, Judy sometimes would answer and we'd have long talks about everything under the sun. When I told my two children about Judy's passing, I received this from my son: "My favorite memory of Judy was when she took me to play tennis on the Hiawatha Club courts. She was very patient with me. I learned a ton and had lots of fun." Yep, that was Judy. She will surely be missed.

“ Judy was the best mother-in-law anyone could ask for. Kris took me to meet her parents when we first started dating. We went to a fancy restaurant on the Ohio river. I was a little nervous and wanted to make a good impression. I did my best to watch my table manners and not just shove food in my mouth and gulp it down like I usually do. When my salad came out, I decided to cut my cherry tomato, which I have never done before. I picked up my butter knife (very bad idea) and went to work. It instantly exploded all over Judy's white blouse. Judy could have said “ Kris this guy isn't the one for you” but she didn't. I couldn't believe her intelligence and ability to do the daily cross words from the newspaper. She would be done in minutes and used words I never even heard of. My favorite moments were talking politics and watching Fox News with her. We both wondered what the hell happened to common sense. We really fed off each other's comments. The day before she passed, I made some comment about that “ damn Biden” and I saw a smile come across her face. Judy was a very special person to me and will be greatly missed.

“ Kristin and Cheryl. Growing up with you both and your Mom spending Holidays together at Aunt Aggies are memories from a long time ago. The values that our parents shared with us, the sense of family that we learned, the foods that we ate, the games that we played, all shaped us to be able to shape our own kids. I am happy for the magical days that we spent with you and your family and hope that you are able to remember, laugh and share with those that are closest and knew your mom the best. Peace to you all.

“ My cousin Dave and I grew up spending summers at the Hiawatha Club in the Upper Peninsula, We both traded comic books with Judy on the dock at Judy's parents cabin on Lake Millecoquin but Dave ended up with the prize. For many years our families spent many Thanksgiving Day Holidays together at Dave's Mom's place in St. Johns. Though we didn't get together so much in recent years, I will miss them both greatly and send my condolences to Cheryl and Chris and their families. Love, Jim

“ I will forever remember and admire my grandma's intelligence, style, and love of dogs. Some of my favorite memories with her were spent at the cabin on Lake Millecoquin, our shopping trips in Mackinaw City, and just chatting. She will be greatly missed by myself and many, but always remembered fondly.

“ My mom left us with so many precious memories. She loved us unconditionally and tenderly guided us as we grew up. She was an extraordinary role model with her quiet, kind, calm and nurturing manner. She inspired me to become a mom and a teacher. She never criticized and always lent a listening ear. She truly was a remarkable human being and left this world a much better place. She touched the lives of all who knew her. My mom was so easy to love. I am forever grateful for her and she will continue to be my guiding light. “A mother holds her children’s hands for awhile, their hearts forever.” ❤️

“ Mom was 23 when she had twin girls 20 minutes apart. I was 40 when I had twin girls 3 minutes apart. Her professional career included working for an ad agency managing client accounts, one of which briefly included a manufacturing company that I ended up working for in a similar position. She had collagenous colitis, I have collagenous colitis. She was a picky eater, I am a picky eater. She wore glasses, I wear glasses. She was tiny but mighty. I am tiny but mighty. We shared a love of jewelry. Boy could she dig her heels in and I guess I can too. She introduced Kris and I as babies to the Upper Peninsula and the little piece of heaven on Lake Millecoquin. I introduced Isabelle and Alexis to the majesty of the UP when they were babies and hope to continue that tradition for generations to come. Mom, I love you and you will be missed terribly. Hopefully Dad and Libby and Sam and Maggie were waiting for you when you got there. Maybe even Macey. May flights of angels sing thee to thy rest.

“ Much of my childhood was spent with my grandmother at her cabin in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan; we created many memories I'll cherish forever. Our summers were full of s'mores, swimming in the lake, and her personal favorite -- playing tennis! I also loved coming to visit her in Cincinnati where we could have nice discussions in the warmth of her gazebo while watching for fireflies. She was always willing to listen and offer advice, never ran out of recommendations for a good book, and knew exactly the right word to choose in Scrabble. She will be missed! ”
