“ So terribly sorry to hear this news. I believe I spent more nights at her house than mine when we were in school! She is at the peace now and in God's hands. May you be at peace also, Jill, knowing she is no longer struggling.

“ So sorry about Judy passing. We went through 12 years of school together. She was always full of joy. I left town right after high school for the Air Force and lost touch. I did get to visit with her at one of our reunions. So glad she has no more suffering. Heaven will receive a loving person. Bob Young.

“ Family -- I do not know Judy personally; however, I work with her daughter, Jill, and have heard many funny and loving stories about her. I just wanted to pass along my sincere condolences and offer many good thoughts and prayers all the way from Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Jill is a good friend, and I know how much she is going to miss her Mom. May God bless and forever hold ALL of you in his arms! Teresa Milsaps

“ My heart is breaking. Judy & I were such good friends in high school. She was maid of honor in my wedding. Her voice was like a gentle breeze, so beautiful! Even though we lost touch after high school, we would always make sure to find each other at our class reunions. She was always so vivacious & upbeat. She will always hold a special place in my heart. My sincerest, deepest condolences to her family and special prayers during this difficult time. God bless you, my friend.

“ What can I say? Judy and I were born on the same day, our mothers gave birth in the same hospital and shared same room. Her father fried chicken and brought it to them to the hospital for them to eat.

We were baptized on the same day and have shared lots of good and not so good memories but we have survived.

I would call Judy but she didn't want to talk for along time as she was short of breath

She is in God's hands now.....peace be with you my friend.

“ Judy and I stood together, swaying left and right on the bandstand, as my sister, Kim, sang "Leavn' on That Midnight Train to Georgia" in our band "FRIENDS." She was a good friend and I am sadden by her passing. Blessings Jill. Life is hard, but God is good!

“Forty one years ago on Dec 8 my daughter, Stacey, was born. Three days later we were released from the hospital. Went home, changed clothes, and headed to Judy's house for a Bower family reunion. Judy loved holding my new little baby girl. She was so excited that her house was Stacey's first outing. I remember the joy on Judy's face. I hadn't seen Judy much over the years but I loved her dearly. Rest in Peace Cousin. Say hi to my dad and mom, Ellis and Pearl Bower.
