I have a great memorie of Justin. It was staying at his house. It was the my first time on a farm. Helping his grandpa with the dairy cows. We stayed up all night calling 105.9 the rebel trying to hear a song we asked them to play. It was the Kentucky Headhunters. We had a blast. We had been communicating recently & planned to meet up, sadly we ran out of time. Justin was a good friend & will be missed!

“ My heart is aching for Cynthia, Jen and the whole family. Justin was always smiling when I would see him and that smile could light up a room. I know that smile lit up Heaven a little bit more when he arrived. May he rest in peace.

“ It's always so sad to lose a family member. I lost three first cousins this week. I asked God to please let this stop! Being 33 years older than Justin, we didn't have that much in common other than commenting on Facebook when he would post pictures of himself along with his dad, Billy Ray, and my Uncle Clay. These pictures would always make my tears flow. Justin's family and our family were like peas in the same pod. His dad's mom and my mom were sisters. His dad and my dad were brothers. Between his dad's family and ours, there were 14 kids with the same blood. When they hurt, we hurt. This must be what it feels like to lose a nephew. Justin will be sadly missed by all of his family who loved him so much. Rest In Peace, Justin. See you on the other side, my precious cousin.
