

Karen G. Kellum

September 7, 2013

Karen G. Kellum, age 62, of Hamilton died Saturday, September 7, 2013 in Hospice of Hamilton. She was born June 14, 1951 in Santa Ana, California the daughter of Everett J. and Linda F. (Weaver) Landreth. She married Gary Kellum on June 22, 1972 in Millville, Ohio. She had been employed as a hair dresser. She is survived by her husband, Gary; two children, Russ (Ginny) Kellum, Maineville, Ohio and Michelle (Keith Kurland) Kellum, Hamilton; her mother, Linda Steely, Ceres, California; two brothers, Randy Steely and Danny Steely both of Ceres, California; three sisters, Joyce Owens, Hamilton, Linda Miley, Hamilton and Tisha Agnone, Los Angeles, California; three grandchildren, Sam, Grace and Lucie; special friend, Tari Wright and many nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her father, a brother, Ronald Dean Landreth and an aunt Jean Schumaker. She loved being a nana. Memorial services will be held Wednesday, September 11, 2013 at 7 p.m. at Weigel Funeral Home, 980 N. W. Washington Blvd. Visitation will be Wednesday from 5 p.m. until time of the service at 7 p.m. Special thanks to the staff at Hospice of Hamilton. Memorials may be directed to the American Cancer Society, 2808 Reading Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45206.