“ I met Kay 3 yrs ago. I had the pleasure to get to know her& hear many of her life’s stories including getting her dog, Tuffy, sewing a dress for her Opera Singer friend, the Central Park mounted police coming to her rescue, many nursing stories as well as stories about her Sweet Maggie, just to mention a few. It made up an Amazing Life & Amazing Lady!
Fridays at the hair salon won’t be the same without her (she called 4 of us the Steel Magnolias).
Sending my Deepest Sympathies to her family
Kay,
My friend,
I will miss you until we meet again some day.

“ I moved into Kay’s condo after she downsized to an apartment at Berkeley Square. The condo had been remodeled and she asked if she could come over and see it. She brought me a brand new American flag to put on the flag pole that she had installed when she moved in. She visited for quite a while and we talked about her life story. Years ago she also had planted a beautiful yellow rosebush. It is still thriving outside my front door. I will always remember sweet Kay. Sheila Jones

“ Kay and I had many long conversations sharing stories regarding our nursing careers. We loved having a cold beer together and Kay loved cuddling my dog Lexi. She will be missed.
