

Larry Dean Halstead

January 20, 2013

Larry Dean Halstead, age 68, of Hamilton, Ohio went to be with his glorious father on Sunday, January 20, 2013 in Leesburg, Virginia. He was born on April 29, 1944 in Randolph County, Indiana to Everett and Gladys (Thurston) Halstead both deceased. He was a graduate of Rose Hulman and was a retired chemical engineer from Proctor & Gamble, where he was employed for 30 years. He was married to Barbara (Ellis) Halstead on September 5, 1965, and has enjoyed getting to travel to their many timeshare destinations since retirement. He was a member of Center Pointe Christian Church, in Liberty Township, Ohio, where he exemplified Loving God Radically, Serving others Compassionately, and Leading others to Jesus. He is survived by his loving wife, Barbara, daughter Tracie (Jeff) Hawes, son Michael (Suzanne) Halstead and his five precious grandchildren, Hayden, Landon, and Jaelyn Hawes and Morgan and Gavin Halstead. He is also survived by his two sisters, Sandra (Charles) Hill and Pamela (James) Norris as well as many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Visitation will be held Friday, January 25, 2013 from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm at Weigel Funeral Home, 980 NW Washington Blvd., Hamilton, Ohio. Funeral Services will be Saturday, January 26, 2013 at Weigel Funeral Home at 10:00 am with burial to follow at Venice Cemetery in Ross, Ohio. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested memorials to the Center Point Christian Church – Missions Fund at 5962 Hamilton Mason Road, Liberty Township, Ohio 45011-8480.