“ Where do I start with all the memories I have. Miami hockey games, Destin FL, homecoming dress shopping, a wedding, the many times just being with the family, your love of dogs and crafts. Linda was so kind and always made me laugh. Heaven definitely gained a good one.

The Miller family (Bill and Sibyl, etc.) send our deepest condolences to Mark and their wonderful family as they, and the entire community, endure this sorrowful loss of beloved Linda. She was such a powerful force for good in our church and in the wider community! May she find eternal rest in the arms of our Heavenly Father and the Prince of Peace.
