“ I was fortunate that I had you for a Mother for all these years. You were always giving, never expecting anything in return. I will forever cherish all my memories of you, especially a particular Nashville trip. Rest in peace and enjoy being with Dad, your Mom, Brothers and sisters. We will meet again. Until then, I love and miss you.

My name is Brandi and I took care of your father Ed. I just loved him. He was always overflowing with emotion till he cried. Loved him. But the sass and strength your mother had was something I'd never seen. She came everyday unless the weather was bad to see Ed. She always smelled good! Was dressed to the tee! I admire her. Was I had my third child gave me some many gifts for her. I'm am appreciative to have met your parents! I know your were well cared for. With Love Brandi
