“ Even though I have not seen Lorraine really since high school I remember her quite fondly. Her and I were friends in high school. I remember how her and Michael got married and started their family. I hate to hear of her passing and would like to send my condolences to her husband Michael and their family. My prayers are with all of you at this time. Mary (Harroll) Tackett

“ Lorraine was one of my mom Naomi's best friends, so growing up, I loved being around her and Mike and all the kids, who were always fun and ready for a good time! The Williams family always had the most fun weddings or parties, I appreciate all the good times, bridal showers, everyone dancing at all the receptions (especially Marky!), Lorraine's awesome food, Christmas cookies, playing with kittens, eating her pigs in a blanket, her big laugh. I always felt a part of the family, and love and miss everyone and I will miss her. I wish I could be there to give my condolences in person and say goodbye. Much love to everyone. Love, Kathleen Carr Handley and Scott Handley

“ Our sympathies to the Williams and South Families. Lorraine was an amazing mother, wife, sister, grandmother and cousin. Lorraine was my "Rainey" and the best cousin in the world. She always gave so much of herself, selflessly. She always made her Parkerhouse and cinnamon rolls for my family whenever we visited. She will be truly missed. Love, Barbara, Ken, Danny, Melissa and Robert.

“ I regularly enjoy a precious childhood picture of Lorraine and my mother-in-law Karen Stidham, sitting on Karen's bedroom dresser from as far back as I can recall - a legacy of friendship lasting 4 generations and running. . .

Love to Beth and the entire Williams family.

“ Our deepest sympathy to the Williams family. Lorraine and I were friends for nearly 40 years, sharing stories about our lives a couple times a week, sometimes we'd laugh, sometimes we'd reflect on Life, sometimes we'd disagree, but we'd always remember that we loved one another. Our common thread was that our families meant/means everything to us, I will always miss her. So sad to have lost her too soon. May God comfort all of you.
