“ To Tonya, Kenny and the families we send our deepest condolences for your loss. Malcolm was such a gentle giant of a man and a great neighbor when we lived across the street. He will be sadly missed by all whom ever knew him. As you come together to celebrate his life, know that the lord has prepared a place for him. He and Jean are together with Cameron watching over you. God bless all of you at this difficult time. If you need us contact us. Mark & Linda Couto also Carol "CJ" Couto.

“ Malcolm was the oldest cousin in the family and growing up, I was closer to his younger brothers. But in the last 10 years I saw Malcolm more often at family reunions. And then when Mom couldn't live in her home alone any longer and moved into a home with others that needed help and attention-Malcolm would come and visit her frequently. So I got to see him more than I had since we were kids. I was so impressed that he spent time coming to visit her, and Jean's Aunt and my Mom's sister, Mary. They were all in different places so it took a lot of time to make the rounds and spend time with each one of them.

Several times in Mom's last years, we happened to visit at the same time and we got to talk and get to know each other again. He was such a caring person and I miss knowing that he was there-and keeping track of the family geneology. Such a memory he had
