

Mark G. Butterfield Jr.

February 22, 2012

Mark G. Butterfield Jr. Age 65, of Hamilton, died Wednesday, February 22, 2012 in Fort Hamilton Hospital. He was born in Darrtown on January 7, 1947, the son of Mark G. and Catherine Slezak Butterfield. He was a 1965 graduate of Taft High School and attended Miami University and the University of Cincinnati. He married Carla Chizmadia on December 31, 1990 in Hamilton. He was employed as a machinist for the U. S. Playing Card Co. in Norwood and retired in 2009 after 40 years of service. He was the Association Manager of the Greater Hamilton Bowling Association and was previously a board member of the Greater Cincinnati Bowling Association. He was nominated in 2012 to the Greater Hamilton Bowling Association's Hall of Fame. He is survived by his wife, Carla; two daughters, Heather Paoello and husband, Bill of Kissimmee, Florida and Laura Butterfield of Hamilton; two sons, Brian Butterfield of Hamilton and Mark G. Butterfield III of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; two stepchildren, Marcus Rulli of Los Angeles, California and Bryne Wheeler and husband, Thomas of Cincinnati; one granddaughter, Juleah Butterfield of Bradenton, Florida and many close friends. There was no visitation or service, as per the request of the deceased. Private viewing was held for the family.