“ I have talked to Mark about twice a week every week for the last 25 or so years. Our conversations always started out to be work related but, as we all know, Mark loved to talk and the rest of our time was spent talking about any number of things including religion, our families, politics, and crazy things to make each other laugh.

He was a good man who loved his family and many friends. We will all miss him.

“ I met Mark when he was my neighbor on Mark Avenue 20 years ago. I liked him immediately. He had great wisdom and wit and it was always a good time hanging out with him. He loved his kids and grandkids very much and especially loved having them all over to his house for the 4th of July fireworks. I had just stopped by his house last Sunday evening. He told me he had been out playing golf all day. Then we talked about him wanting to retire full time. He did mention that he was very tired. I am so shocked and saddened to hear this. Please accept my condolences. It's a lesser world without Mark in it! Very sincerely Ed Straus

“ The best memory I have is from several years ago I was at your house and you are showing me your truck and lawn mower you had recently bought. We were in the garage and you tell me to “watch my step” as there is a huge extension cord on the floor. As you are attempting to move it so I don’t trip over it, you trip over it and this causes me to trip over it. Only because I was trying to catch you, now I’ve stepped into the cord mess. Problem is that you are holding said cord which is now wrapped around my feet... you somehow drag me, as you pop off with some Ninja Matrix move saving yourself. Sending me to the floor tangled in that damn extension cord. I’ll miss you and your mustache, Mark. You will always be my favorite cousin. Lots of love, Angela Weber

“ I just can’t imagine life without you. You have been one of my best friends and go to for so many years. I will miss our talks because you always had a way with words. You were such a Bright light to all that knew you and I will miss you dearly. I love you my friend, Rest in Peace 🙏

“ Mark you will be missed my friend. I got to know you through my brother in law Bear. I loved our talks when you would come to the house. You helped us out every time we need you. One of my favorite memories was when you put up some tiles in the bathroom. You had left and I called you right away and said the tiles fell down.... You were stunned. But what really happened was you left your tool. R. I. P. my friend. I know I’ll see you soon. Now you are reunited with your best bud Bear.
