“ Scott always admired his mother. We had many long talks about how he loved and appreciated her so much. They are now together forever. I'm assuming they will be buried next to one another as well- in Rose Hill.

“ There are no words I can say to help ease the pain of your loss at this time. But to know Kay was a an amazing beautiful woman, wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, sister in law and cousin and will be truly missed. I am so happy to have known her and had her part of our family. Kay you may gone but you will always remain in our heart and will always love on.💕 Jill
