“Matt,
You really were a great person. You were genuine, hilarious, witty and would go out of your way to be there for anyone you cared about. You always answered the phone when I called - even if I was annoying you (which was often.) I hate that we were fighting when you passed. If I could take everything that I said back, I would. Just know that I loved you and I'm so sorry. You deserved better than this. I hope one day this all makes sense, because it just doesn't right now. I pray for justice. In whatever form that looks like. Xoxoxo Fly high, Crazy.

“ Matt, you were hilarious and I still tell people the Megadeth story, how you were tring to convince your Mom to let you go, that it was pronounced Mee-ga-dath, and was German for "inner peace". You were a kind and gentle soul, Matt. That's what I'll remember.

This is Matt's brother - I absolutely remember this because I could NOT believe my Mom fell for it. I was just thinking about this a day ago but didn't think anyone else would know about it or remember it. LOL

I'm Matt's mom and when writing his obituary yesterday when adding concerts I told that same story! That dirty rat! Matthew was born on the exact same date at same time as the tragedy of 11 people dying at the WHO concert. I was always worried about that! My sweet, handsome, funny, goofy, big hearted baby! You are always with me.
