“Dad I love you and miss you tons. My children will never forget everything you did for them or bring them there favorite chicken wings after work so they had a snack after school. So glad you got to go to Kelin grandparents day he sure loved you there and you were his number 1 man. We will never forget you give mom a big hug and kiss from my family and we will see you again one day.

“Thanks Dad for the values you instilled in me. While we did not always see eye to eye, as I'm sure most father son relationships are at times, it was still a learning experience. I hope I made you proud, and I will do my best to make sure I continue to do the same. Thanks for the memories that I will not forget, my entire family mourn from your passing. Rest in Peace dad, the suffering is over, enjoy your reunion with mom.

“ Well I am sure only a couple of you will appreciate this, mainly Tricia and Allison, but I will share it anyway. One day I was at Michael and Lorraine's home visiting with one of their grandsons. They were eating "star fruit" which I had never heard of. Mike insisted that I try it, so I did and I liked it, but Mike teased me forever about it. One thing that I always admired about the whole William's family is how they are a very close family and I know that their children were raised with good home cooked family meals every day. I am sure a lot of the cooking was Lorraine but I raising a large family that is so close is because of Michael and Lorraine. Lorraine definitely made at least one (Tricia) if not all of her children into excellent cooks. I am glad I had the pleasure of getting to know both Mike and Lorraine.. Prayers to the whole family and remember you all will always have 2 special angels watching over all of you. Love, Melissa McDonough
