“ Mili was one of my dearest friends. Just wished I'd meant her sooner after moving here. We would have needlepointed together for sure. Have her very first needlepoint she said had a mistake in it and wouldn't hang it. A darling elephant. I adore it and so does everyone else that see it.

I wasn't able to visit her but calling each other and talking for an hour over same things made us happy. She was so very special even helping her over and over the same things made her and Me laugh.

Loved her dearly and will miss her.
