“ BeeBee and Family,
Please accept our sincere condolences upon Neil's passing from this world to the glory and eternal peace that awaits those who accept and serve our Lord and Savior, Jesus. Neil was was a faithful servant and unabashed proclaimer of the Truth and Peace that exceeds all mortal understanding. It has been a blessing to have shared our earthly journey with you and Neil, both as friends and fellow believers.

“ Sharon and I extend our deepest sympathies to Neil's family. I had the privilege of accompanying Neil on a mission trip to Haiti in January 1989 and benefited greatly from his influence. Through the following years, I have known Neil and admired him for his love of the Lord and his service to the church. Neil will be greatly missed.
